

Move Lord Move

I'm tired of living this death
Tired of lies that destroy what good that's left
This world was never my home
Living in a world where true peace has never been known
True love never been shown
Except by one
The only Begotten Son
The God who walked in flesh
To show you
Through Him
All people can pass the test
And rise above this toxic mess
He can clean out your mind and give you a start that's fresh
There's so many chasing after death
Things that eat out your mind
And snatch your last breath
The slave has yet to learn
That their following the wrong master and you're gonna get burned
When you gonna make that turn
Toward Yahweh
Cause His way is the only way

Move Lord, Move 8x's
Heal your people
Restore your people
Refresh your people
To Yahweh
None is equal

If God gotta move
You move first
And show Him it' His love and His truth you thirst
And show Him in all things that you're putting Him first
Then He'll raise up
Step forward and burst
This bubble of sin
That's been such a curse

Heal your people
Restore your people
Refresh your people

To Yahweh
None is equal

Move Lord, Move 8x's

Heal your people
Restore your people
Refresh your people
To Yahweh
None is equal

Move Lord, Move 8x's

You want to rule this world you can have it man
Selling your soul to that magic man
You don't want to understand and that's tragic man
You can have much more following God's plan
I yearn for true love
I yearn for peace
I yearn for the day God destroys the beast
I yearn for truth
I yearn to be free
I yearn to see the God that put-up with me

(Yes Lord) 2x's

I speak the fire of the Holy one
And I'll fight the fight until Yahweh comes
You living in a world that's full of lies
So if you're standing for the truth
You will be dispised

Move Lord, Move 8x's
