

Oh My Lord

Enemy

I was to you first
And it was your love that gave birth
To your truth
Burning inside of my mello
So I tuned in
And said Lord Hello
You said
You were there since the beginning
It may have seemed that the enemy was winning
But I knew you'd hear my voice
And you'd make the right choice
I know you're feeling pretty scarred your life has been hard
But in truth
Trust in me
Because I can set you free

Oh my Lord

My God

I trust you...you

Oh my Lord

My God

I love you...you

I try to live it how you write it
Though my flesh will always fight it
It's a grind out here man
Watch your mind out here man
This world got you running
Chasing shadows by the dozen
Got you sleepin while you walkin
Mouth full of words
But hollow talking
Mind full of fear
Greed and scheming
That voice leading you
Man that's a demon
Cause God ain't gonna tell you to lie
And thats why

Chorus

You can have peace right love
In the midst of the storm
You can know love right here love
Though the world is so torn
Peace and love from the Divine
Transmitted to the mind
Test Him and you will find
That His love over floweth
Now the Lord has set the table
But are you ready to eat
Then praise His name
And have a seat
And let the feast begin
